

DELINQUENT ROLL CALL

QUESTIONNAIRES OF REGISTRANTS FAILING TO FILE THEM, SENT TO SACRAMENTO

Chairman Lanterman, of the local Exemption Board, is now quite restored to health. Miss Lanterman, who is acting as chief clerk, reports that the harvest of delinquents from the total registration under this board was 238, but of this number only 138 were real delinquents, the rest having cleared themselves. Of this 138 the majority were Mexicans ignorant of their responsibilities, many of them unable to read or speak English, but the list also included 24 Americans—mostly floating laborers who failed to understand their obligation to fill out a questionnaire or who deliberately tried to evade service. The questionnaires for these men are being sent to the office of Adjutant-General Borree in Sacramento to be acted upon there by Federal authorities. It is possible some of these men will be rounded up and sent to jail since they cannot now be sent to the Army.

Miss Lanterman comments on the fact that in spite of quite a large list of Japanese registrants, few of them were delinquent, the majority filling out their questionnaires in a very intelligent manner.

FOOTBALL CLUB

Mrs. G. K. Barnes, of 1311 North Brand boulevard, entertained the ladies of the Football Club very delightfully on Friday afternoon. The decorations were of the season's flowers and the ladies enjoyed a happy social afternoon.

Officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. William S. Porter, president; Mrs. Mary J. Oliver, vice-president; Mrs. W. E. Hewitt, secretary. The club has been sewing for the Belgian children and they decided at this meeting to spend some time in sewing for the needy of Glendale and vicinity.

DISTRICT GOOD TEMPLARS MEETING

A delegation of members of the Glendale Good Templars' Lodge attended a district meeting at Pasadena Saturday. The chief business was the election of district officers. Addresses were made at the afternoon session and the evening was a social event to give members a chance to renew acquaintance. Los Angeles, Santa Monica and Pasadena Lodges were well represented at the convention. The Glendale party included Mr. and Mrs. Fansett, Miss Alice Watson, Mrs. Emma Reed, Mrs. Nettie Turner, Arthur Lindley, Robert Taylor and Mrs. Hollingsworth.

LAPPINS AT ANAHEIM

PURCHASE DYE WORKS THERE AND ESTABLISH THEMSELVES IN OLD LANDMARK

Anaheim, California, Feb. 4, 1919.

Glendale Friends:—As so many of our friends do not know we are in Anaheim, I will drop you a few lines through your popular paper.

We came to Anaheim where Mr. Lappin purchased the Anaheim Dye Works on Jan. 1st. We are located in one of the oldest buildings here, which in days gone by was a saloon, gambling den and beer garden. I've heard so many wierd stories connected with it that I am always expecting the ghosts of yester-year to appear.

However, it would not do them much good to return now, because Anaheim went dry on Jan. 1st. Some people prophesied a slump, but business has gone on just the same, and on Saturday night, there is scarcely parking room for the autos on the business streets. The men who were engaged in the liquor business have opened up in other lines of business.

The only fault to find with this little city is the lack of vacant houses. There is a waiting list for places to live in and one man even offered five dollars to anyone who could find a vacant house for him.

I looked for two days before finding a one room and kitchenette apartment with rent at $22.50 per month. Finally we were compelled to live in the rear of our shop and very glad to do it.

Anaheim has Olinda, Yorba Linda, Brea, Placentia and numerous other small oil towns around here to draw from.

We have a complete dry cleaning plant and can care for the work coming from all these places.

So when you are down this way, drop into the Anaheim Dye Works and see

THE LAPPINS.

SUBURBAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP STILL DANGLES

Glendale High's football team got a hard jolt in the game with Redlands last Saturday which ended in a score of 28 to 7 in favor of Redlands. The field was newly plowed and soft, the Redlands boys highly trained and swift. Enough said. Glendale still has a chance at the Suburban League championship in a game to be played the last of the week with Citrus Union, with which Glendale was tied, and which won from South Pasadena Monday.

CHANGE FOR C. B. WILDE

GOES TO BAKERSFIELD TO HANDLE NASH AUTOMOBILE FOR KERN COUNTY

C. B. Wilde, the popular auto distributor, expects to leave Glendale within the next two weeks for Bakersfield to handle the Nash car for Kern county. Mr. Wilde has been a member of the firm of Walker, Wilde & McFadden, Ford Agents, who recently sold out their business to Jesse E. Smith, from whom they purchased it when he entered army service. Mrs. Wilde and her children will remain in Glendale for the present as she wishes to stay until their home on Milford and Central avenue is sold. The Wildes have a large circle of friends here, and will be missed in Masonic and other circles. Mr. Wilde has been congratulated on the field he has secured, which is regarded as one of the best in the state, for the oil interests and big agricultural development keep large amounts of money in circulation there and it is more freely spent than in some sections of the state. He will handle the comparatively new and popular "Nash" manufactured by the man who for years was at the head of the Buick factory, and he anticipates a fine business. He is sorry, however, to give up his home in Glendale where he has so long resided and where he has so many pleasant business and social associations.

CORP. STEVE HAVILAND

RETURNS UNSCRATCHED FROM WAR AFTER GOING OVER THE TOP FOUR TIMES

Corporal Steve A. Haviland, a graduate of Glendale Union High and nephew of George T. Brewster, of this city, who was returned to Camp Kearny for demobilization, was given twenty-four hours' leave and spent Sunday in Glendale. He expects to be discharged today and then to be employed in Nesom's Drug Store in Los Angeles. He is well acquainted with the business as he was employed by Roberts & Echols before he went to war.

His experience in the great war reads like a fairy tale. He had a year of service at the front and went over the top four times; was in the battle of Chateau Thierry from the beginning to the end in Company E of the First Gas Co., of the First Regiment of Engineers. He is one of the twenty-one men left in his company, all the rest having given their lives, and he comes back without a scratch to tell the tale of the conflict. Neither does it seem to have left its mark upon him in other ways. His friends say he is "The same old Steve" with no seeming cloud upon his spirit in spite of the awful scenes of slaughter he has witnessed.

The last time he "went over" was the night before the armistice was signed. He was gone nine hours and that time he went reluctantly. The boys knew the truce was pending and, as he phrased it, he "didn't like to be bumped off the last day of the war," but his luck held and he came through as usual unhurt. He has brought back a great many souvenirs, and also comes back with a very kindly feeling for Rev. E. H. Willisford, who, he says, used to sneak cookies out to him when he was in the front line.

He had some very narrow escapes. For instance, he was in a dugout one night when a gas attack warning sounded. He grabbed his mask, put it on, got out of the dugout and away from it just in time to escape being killed, for every other man in the dugout was blown to atoms by a bomb dropped from a Hun plane. Engineers who made measurements afterwards figured that the bomb fell exactly in the middle of the dugout. The aviators were trying to locate some T. N. T. stock which was stored near by and ammunition trucks.

As before stated, Steve is bigger, straighter and huskier than when he went, but otherwise seems unchanged.

PRESIDENT WILSON TRUSTS THE PEOPLE

HE IS SATISFIED THEY WILL RALLY WITH PRACTICAL UNANIMITY TO SUPPORT OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Feb. 25.—Replying to a telegram indorsing the league of nations, which was sent to him by President Theodore Burton of the League of Nations Union, New York, President Wilson today declared that he is "confident the people of the country will rally with practical unanimity to the support of the league of nations."

At the White House it was announced that the President hopes to return to France March 5, and that he is arranging his work with that in view. In the meantime arrangements has been completed for almost instant communication with Paris, should occasion demand.

The President was at his desk this morning shortly after 10 o'clock, and found many telegrams awaiting him, some especially commending his speech at Boston and nearly all indorsing the league of nations.

ORDER GOVERNING SOLDIERS' RETURN

GENERAL PERSHING ANNOUNCES THEY WILL BE SENT HOME IN ORDER OF THEIR ARRIVAL IN FRANCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, Feb. 25.—General Pershing today published general orders directing the return of American soldiers home in the order of their arrival in division headquarters in France. Regular army divisions are excluded from the operation of the order, which is taken to indicate that they will be held for use as an army of occupation.

Combat troops already under assignments, supply and labor units, will be returned in the order of their service as far as possible. Under this plan the divisions probably will return in the following order:

The 27th, 30th, 80th, 85th, 37th and 91st during March.
The 26th, 77th, 82nd, 35th and 42nd during April.
The 32nd, 28th, 33rd and 78th during May.
The 89th, 90th, 29th and 79th during June.

FLYER LANDS NOT FAR FROM GLENDAL

REPAIRS MACHINE AND CONTINUES HIS FLIGHT TO SAN DIEGO, HIS OBJECTIVE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Los Angeles, Feb. 25.—Excited efforts were made for a time to locate an airplane which it was feared had fallen with its driver in the neighborhood of Glendale or Sawtelle this morning. At noon it was ascertained that the plane, which was directed by a flyer named Hart, left Venice for San Diego, and on account of some trouble was forced to land in the hills back of Sawtelle, but he succeeded in fixing his machine and continued his flight to San Diego.

SIX BILLION REVENUE BILL SIGNED

PRESIDENT WILSON ATTACHED SIGNATURE LAST NIGHT. SOME PROVISIONS ARE AT ONCE OPERATIVE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Feb. 25.—President Wilson signed the six billion dollar war revenue bill before retiring last night, it was announced from the White House today. Many provisions of the bill become operative immediately.

PROPOSED CHANGES IN NAVAL LAWS

PARIS IS DISCUSSING SALE OF MUNITIONS BY NEUTRALS AND CONTRABAND OF WAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, Feb. 25.—Revolutionary changes in international naval laws, rendering war almost impossible, are under discussion here. They cover largely the question of munitions shipments and contraband.

The first proposal would make a nation responsible for any neutral act of its citizens. This would prevent warring nations from buying munitions in neutral countries and having them shipped at the carrier's risk, and neutral governments would be responsible for shipments of munitions.

The proposal would require that no change be made in the lists of contraband after a war begins; that in case a vessel is suspected of carrying contraband, the right of search shall extend only as far as the examination of the ship's papers, and if a neutral vessel is found carrying contraband, the league of nations is to determine the punishment. It is believed these rules will entirely prevent warring nations from buying munitions outside of their own boundaries.

SENATE COMMITTEE FAVORS STANDING ARMY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Feb. 25.—The Senate military committee today agreed to recommend the establishment of an army of 509,000 men and 28,000 officers as the nation's permanent military force.

"THE BURGLAR" TO GET INTO LIMELIGHT AT G. U. H. S.

Since many of the members of the dramatic class of Glendale Union High have acted as coaches in the production of plays, the suggestion was made that the coaches unite in putting on a play. "The Burglar" is the vehicle which has been selected for this histrionic demonstration, and it is to be given at one of the assemblies in the near future. It is to be hoped it will show methods of catching burglars.

WORK WANTED BUREAU

EMPLOYERS WHO WANT HELP ARE REQUESTED TO REGISTER AT CITY HALL

Three soldier boys have registered for employment at the City Hall in the free employment office established there recently. Miss Wilson who has charge of the switch board in the office of the City Clerk has their applications and can give full particulars to any person needing help. Two remarked that they wanted "work for strong backs and no brains," but they explained that they, or at least one of them, had been a caterpillar engine driver, that they were accustomed to auto trucks and also understood farm work, all of which sounds as if they would be pretty handy men to have around on a ranch or in a machine shop. The other man wanted clerical work.

The aim of the employment bureau, which is a municipal affair and entirely free, is to bring employer and employee together. Men who want help are therefore requested to register at the City Hall so that applicants may be referred to them. While the bureau was started primarily to assist returning soldiers, it is not limited to that class. Any man wanting work whether a soldier or not, can make application and will be placed if an opening for him can be found.

THE HOLY GRAIL

REV. SNUDDEN FINDS BOYS APPRECIATIVE OF WHAT IS DONE FOR THEM

The following extracts from letters from Rev. B. D. Snudden, who resigned his pastorate of the First Methodist Church to go to France to engage in Y. M. C. A. work, will be of interest to his friends here:

Dec. 18.—I have just received my appointment to the Educational Department, which is largely new work. My month in the office was greatly worth while. And now in my new work I am going to do and be and get all I can, as my friend said, "I want to see the Holy Grail." Did I write you of the man who came over with me, and when saying farewell here before he went to his field? With a fine smile on his face and a thrill in his voice, he said: "I am not here for money, neither am I here for pleasure, nor for sight-seeing, nor for souvenirs. I want to see the Holy Grail." I feel that way, and I think on the line mapped out. I can do more than in any other way.

Dec. 20. I start for Dijon tomorrow at 7:45 a. m. I am to report there and work out from that as my headquarters. Just how many weeks I shall be in that region I do not know, but I am looking to Him for strength for my work. I shall give the best I have. I have two lectures with slides on California, and one "America, the Land of Destiny," another, "What U. S. Spells"—am to preach twice each Sunday.

Dijon, Dec. 21. I arrived here at 2:30 p. m. This is what is known as a regional headquarters—a town of about 25,000. When I arrived I reported at headquarters; then to the provost marshal. You see all movements in France must be under military regulations. Consequently, before I could leave Paris I had to be checked out by the provost marshal, and when I came here, checked in, and when I leave I must be checked out, so you see there is quite a little red tape in connection with moving about here. According to present arrangements, I shall be working in this region until Feb. 3d. My dates are as follows: Bourbonne-les Bains, Dec. 23-30; Langres, Dec. 30-Jan. 5; Prauthoy, Jan. 6-12; Racey-sur-Ource, Jan. 13-19; Is-sur-Tille, Jan. 20-26; Dijon, Jan. 27-Feb. 3. I shall spend the time during the days in the huts and with the boys. Pray for me that I may be able to help them in every way. I want to inspire them for their own sakes, for their families' sakes, for their country, and for God.

Bourbonne les Bains, Dec. 23. The soldiers are scattered all through

BIG ELKS' MEETING

LODGE HALL FILLED TO HEAR ADDRESS OF DISTRICT DEPUTY SHANNON

Glendale Lodge, B. P. O. Elks, 1289, held one of the largest, most enthusiastic meetings in its existence Monday evening. The occasion was the official visit of District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler for California South, Michael F. Shannon.

Elks' Lodge, 99, of Los Angeles, of which Mr. Shannon is a Past Exalted Ruler, came out in force with a band of forty pieces conducted by Dr. Sherman. Among the officers of Lodge 99 who accompanied the band were Past Exalted Ruler Deacon Pyle and Exalted Ruler Paul D. Robinson. Many visitors from lodges of near-by towns were also present.

A large class of new members was initiated into the order, assisted by Glendale's crack drill team under command of Captain William C. Wattles. The order is booming and applications are coming in constantly. The Glendale Lodge is one of the liveliest in the order and has a large membership for the district it covers.

The return of some twenty-five of its soldier members has put new life and vim into the organization manifesting itself in many ways. Its service flag bears about one hundred stars, four of which are gold.

The address made by District Deputy Shannon was appropriate to the occasion and very inspiring. He called attention to the fact that the high principles of the order are such that all local lodges are required to be in the fore front in the performance of all patriotic duties which are non-sectarian and non-political. If there is to be a flag raising or a public demonstration in which the main spirit is patriotism, the Elks are expected and always will be expected to assist in such demonstrations. He reminded his audience that from year to year as the Elks become more familiar with the real needs of the organization they will feel a still greater responsibility resting upon them to be true American citizens, to do nothing to interfere with the rights of others, to do everything possible to lift mankind to a higher level.

He stated it is not the purpose of the order to make great promises or to do things for the sake of getting public praise. Instead its main object is to do them for the sake of doing good and benefiting society.

Glendale residents who were initiated were: George H. Wood, Frank L. Richardson and Frank E. Budway. The annual election of officers of the Glendale Lodge will take place next Monday night.

GREATER GLENDALDE DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

A city or a community is what its people make it. So it is with the Glendale community, it will be just what the men and women of this place make it.

The regular weekly meeting of the Greater Glendale Association will be held this Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the Intermediate School, corner of Wilson avenue and Kenwood.

Industrial site, public park report, postoffice committee's report and other important questions will be up for consideration.

Your presence is needed.

NORTON C. WELLS, President.

C. D. LUSBY, Secretary.

OLD RESIDENTS RETURN

MR. AND MRS. J. M. BENEDICT BUY VIRGINIA SWEET SHOP FROM L. L. SMITH

L. L. Smith, proprietor of the Virginia Sweet Shop on East Broadway, has just sold his business to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Benedict of Inglewood, who have also purchased his home on Harvard street. They will conduct the shop hereafter and will be assisted by Miss Zoe Royce, who has been connected with it for a long time and who is an old friend of theirs. They formerly resided in Glendale and 12 years ago bought the old David Graham place on East Wilson avenue. It is about eight years since they left here and Mrs. Benedict remarked to her husband that it was the happiest she had experienced since her wedding day when they returned as she has always been very fond of Glendale and hopes now to make her permanent home here.

Frank Coffin, Publicity Secretary of the Pacific Union Conference, has gone to Sacramento to aid in the fight which is being made against the Sunday closing law now before the legislature.

JUST PLAIN THIEVES

A current magazine tells a story of a school girl whose examination paper stated that "Elizabeth was so dishonest that she stole her soldiers' food." Investigation brought to light the paragraph in her history book: "Elizabeth was so parsimonious that she even 'pinched' her soldiers' rations." It is a smile-provoking trifle, based on the child's translation of book language in terms of modern slang.

But wasn't the child basically right in her belief? Is a grafter who "pinches rations" any less a grafter because of royal station? Is chucking any old scraps of meat of inferior quality into cans destined for soldiers' food any the less stealing because it is called by some other name?

Our handy American term for the process of sneaking a little here and there from the public purse is "graft." We use the word loosely and without much force. But isn't a grafter an out-and-out thief? Because his ill-gotten gains come indirectly from the pockets of taxpayers rather than directly from breaking into a house, is his guilt the less? Is it not rather greater and more despicable, because he takes less risk?

Words become so easily masks behind which deeds may hide their real faces. The road-builder or bridge-builder who substitutes material or workmanship of inferior quality, the contractor who bribes the architect or the engineer or the inspector to keep his eyes closed, the man who takes the bribe, the packer who puts bad food into tins, trusting to luck not to be caught at it—all these and all the other grafters, big and little, are just plain thieves.

Somewhere along the line, some child is going shoeless, some office girl will be injured by falling walls, some soldier is dying because of thefts like these.

Words are not things, but thoughts are. And words too often take the place of thoughts. A thief's a thief.

COUNTRY SCHOOL MA'AMS IN CALIFORNIA

California, which is known as the progressive State and which tries to keep well in the van of advance in every line, can still show primitive conditions in certain sections. For instance, in Lake County, a picturesque district lying northeast of San Francisco, separated by encircling mountains from the Sacramento Valley on one side and the coast on the other, the average salary of teachers is only $550 a year. It is thinly populated with no railroad to its county seat as yet. Its high school covers a wide area and the county pays for the transportation of pupils in auto busses in certain sections. In some of the districts there are no boarding accommodations to be had, and so a custom has grown up of building a little school house with two living rooms for the teacher, equipped with a cookstove, the necessary furniture and dishes. There is always an abundance of wood to be had, as the mountains are well wooded, and the country teacher there is decidedly independent and comfortable. While the majority of the teachers there, as elsewhere in the State, are women, they have grown up in the district and are not timid

THE LONDON STRIKE

Dispatches from London indicate that the labor strikes on the part of hotel workers, and employees of the electric railways and trades, are becoming daily more serious, and it is said that drastic steps are contemplated by the authorities unless the situation speedily improves.

This is but another evidence of the need of social, industrial and economic co-operative measures for the welfare of humanity.

The time has forever passed when the world can, with indolent indifference, permit the every-day affairs of its people to ramble along in the slipshod, haphazard, go-as-you-please manner which is constantly making more and more trouble, unrest and disorder throughout all countries.

It may be all very well to talk about a world-wide league or society for the peace of the world; but peace, like charity, should begin at home, and any plan for world peace based on promises made by national groups of people who have not yet worked out methods insuring their own domestic peace and welfare is of a very questionable value.

Twenty-three Americans who were with the Italian army during the offensive in the Monte Grappa sector have received the decoration of the Italian War Cross.

A SALABLE LOAN

By JAMES K. LYNCH

Telegraphic reports of changes in the plan for financing the government have produced a feeling of uncertainty in the minds of our citizens.

We have positive assurance from Secretary Glass that a popular loan will be offered for subscription on April 21st, and that this will be "a salable loan,"—in other words, a loan that will be attractive to the investor whether in the form of certificates or bonds.

Obviously, there are details which cannot yet be decided, and announcements which cannot be made until Congress has legislated.

Let us not be confused by preliminary discussion, but let us keep our minds fixed on the fact that our government requires the money to complete the work it has undertaken. The attempted industrial revolt which collapsed in Seattle, owing to the firmness of the Mayor, is evidence that Hun propaganda is still active. The "war" will not be over until the Huns have been given the bill and have begun paying. Then, and then only, will they realize defeat and confess error.

PEACE REIGNS AND THE P. M. FAN HAS RETURNED

(By United Press)

MILROY, Ind., Feb. 25.—Declaring that he believes he has solved the problem of perpetual motion, Ollie Ray, a young mechanic, today stated that he is willing to give a demonstration of his invention to any reliable authority.

Here are some of the things Ray says his invention has done:

Started a bicycle wheel from its own power, gaining a high rate of speed.

Maintained this high speed for six weeks without the aid of any outside agency except lubricating oil.

In addition, enough additional power was procured from the wheel to run spools from a line shaft.

Ray declares the wheel would be running yet, had he not stopped it at the end of six weeks, having convinced himself that the thing was workable.

For fear the idea might be stolen, he tore down the model, but says he could construct it again within a few hours.

SCHOOL ELECTION

STUDENT BODY SELECTS OFFICERS AFTER A LIVELY BUT FRIENDLY CAMPAIGN

Monday was a momentous day in the history of Glendale Union High School. It was the day preceding the election of officers of the student body and the close of a campaign in which there were competing candidates for every office, although it should be recorded that no spirit of bitterness entered into the competition. Brief campaign speeches setting forth their platforms and intentions were made by all the candidates before the assembly and some of the campaign workers who were not candidates also took the stump for their favorites. The official ballot contained the names of the following candidates:

President—Russell Tummell and Dean Bryant.

Secretary of State—Marian Gower and Louise McClelland.

Secretary of Debating—Frank Balthis and Leland Wise.

Secretary of Assemblies—Dan Campbell, Edna Farmer, Martha Ray and Cecelia Lyons.

Yell Leader—Marshall Pearson, Sam McKee, Fred Dodge and Clayton Card.

Secretary of Order—William Taylor, Ruark Dudley, Paul Caldwell and Guy Bennett.

Secretary of Finance—Virginia Chappius and Robert Carmack.

The election took place at 9 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning, and the returns as reported by Miss Marcella Miller, chairman of the Nominating Committee, show that the following were elected:

President—Russell Tummell.

Secretary of Assembly, Dan Campbell.

Secretary of Athletics—Tom McIvor.

Secretary of State—Marian Gower.

Secretary of Order—William Taylor.

Secretary of Debating—Frank Balthis.

Secretary of Finance—Robert Carmack.

Yell Leader—Fred Dodge.

The president was elected with an excellent majority. The vote for Secretary of Finance was close and some of the secondary candidates ran neck and neck. The impression prevails that the Student Body has made an excellent selection of officers.

THE BOOK REVIEW

GATHERINGS AT THE LIBRARY MONDAY AFTERNOONS GROW IN POPULARITY

There was a very gratifying attendance on the book review given at the Glendale Public Library by Mrs. Danford, the librarian, Monday afternoon, and the greatest interest was manifested. As she stated, "it is the only shop in Glendale that is open twelve hours a day," and the only place where the stranger can find old friends in the shape of print and paper with which to while away lonely hours. Mrs. Danford is endeavoring to introduce patrons to new friends, however, in the new books which have recently been published, and also to make them acquainted with each other, and these book review afternoons are growing in popularity. She opened her talk with a quotation from the anonymous poem, "The Great Plan," viz.:

"I know not whence I came nor whither I go.
But the fact stands clear
That I am here
In this world of pleasure and woe."

She told them something about the Indian poet, Tagore, about the new books of fiction, and made reservations for certain books. Her suggestion that later on a day be devoted to the work of some one author, met with general favor.

She found considerable interest manifested in certain non-fiction books such as "The Twentieth Century Theatre," by Phelps, and Muir's "Steep Trails." Her list of the most popular new fiction included: "Esmeralda," "Billy and the Major," "The Valley of Giants," "Desert Wheat," "Mary Andrews" and "Dere Mabel."

DIXIE DOUGHBOYS ARE GOING BACK TO FARM

(By United Press)

COLUMBIA, Tenn., Feb. 26.—Back to the farm is no imaginary movement among the soldiers in the A. E. F., if letters received from many Tennessee boys now overseas are to be taken as accurate indications.

Scores of these soldiers have written to relatives and friends asking that provisions be made for them to farm this year. One officer who was not a farmer before going to war has asked his father to have a farm ready for him when he returns.

Others who shunned farm work before going to France seem to have caught the fever and are asking for land to rent or buy. Practically every man from this section who farmed prior to entering the service has gone back to tilling the soil upon being discharged.

It is thought that the intensive

FARMS FOR SOLDIERS

BILL BEFORE CONGRESS MAY ENABLE INTERIOR DEPT.
TO PROVIDE THEM

That all citizens, but particularly that soldiers may understand the provision which some of our legislators would make to enable them to get "back to the soil," the following brief pamphlet is being sent out by Secretary Franklin K. Lane with a return postal card attached, addressed to the department of the interior and to be filled in with necessary information about himself by the soldier. The fly leaf of the booklet is entitled, "Hey, there! Do you want a home on a farm? If so, read this, fill in back page, tear off and mail. No postage required." The Evening News is indebted to Alexander Mitchell for a copy of the booklet, which is as follows:

Q. What do you mean, work and homes?

A. Just this: There is a bill now before Congress asking for an appropriation of $100,000,000, which, if passed, will enable the interior department to begin work at once developing co-operative farm settlements for soldiers and sailors in all or nearly all of the states.

Q. Who will get the farms?

A. Those who create them by working on draining, clearing, irrigating and improving the lands.

Q. Will all get farms?

A. That depends on the amount of land reclaimed.

Q. Is this plan only for men who have been across?

A. No. It is for all of the men who have worn Uncle Sam's uniform in the great war.

Q. Where is this land located?

A. In practically every State in the Union there are large areas of this land. There is dry land in the west that needs water, which can be provided by building dams and canals. In the east are large areas of cut-over or logged-off timber land, from which it will be necessary to blow the stumps and clear off the underbrush. In the south is a large amount of cut-over land and swamp land which must be drained.

Q. Could I get a job near my old home?

A. Probably you could. These proposed settlements are scattered all over the country, and it is planned to have one in each State, if Congress provides the money for construction.

Q. How about wages?

A. You would be paid fair wages by the government while doing this work—just as good wages as you would be able to get in outside work of like character.

Q. Would I be enlisted?

A. No. This work is only for men who have been honorably discharged from the service.

Q. What kind of work is it?

A. The government will have work of all kinds in connection with these settlements, from the highest technical and clerical positions to that of laborer.

Q. Now, how about getting a home out of this?

A. After you have helped build the dams and canals, or cleared the cut-over land of stumps, or built the ditches to drain the swamp land; after you have helped to erect houses and barns, built fences, constructed roads and laid out town sites, built creameries, canneries, warehouses, schools, etc.; after you have, in fact, actually reclaimed the land, the government will allow you to pick one of these farms planted in crops.

Q. Does the government give me this farm for nothing?

A. No. And you wouldn't want the government to do it. The plan is to arrange for you to pay for your farm home in small payments over a long term of years, with interest charges at the rate of 4 per cent per annum.

Q. How about stock and farm implements?

A. It is planned that the government will also furnish you with the necessary stock and farm implements, to be paid for by you in small payments spread over several years.

Q. Where will I get the money to make even these small payments?

A. You should be able to save the amount of the first payment out of your wages while working for the government helping to build these settlements. The balance you should be able to pay from the proceeds from the sale of your crops.

Q. I think I should like farm life, but I don't like the idea of being too far away from other people.

A. It is the plan, if Congress passes the bill now pending before it, to build what are known as community settlements, each containing not less than 100 farm homes surrounding a town, so that you will have near neighbors, good roads over which to bring your produce to town, and a market for the sale of your produce within a short distance of your farm home.

Q. How many acres will my farm contain?

A. This will depend upon the location and kind of farming you engage in. For general farming from 40 to 80 acres each, live stock from 80 to 160 acres, fruit farms 15 to 20 acres, and truck from 5 to 20 acres.

Q. I don't know anything about farming, but would like to get a farm home. How will I learn to farm?

A. Competent instructors in farm practice will be stationed on each project to teach men like you just how to make a success of farming.

Q. You say that this plan depends on Congress passing this bill. Then why are you asking me these questions now, before the bill is passed?

A. Because Congress has asked the interior department to make a preliminary investigation of possible settlements throughout the country, and also wishes to know whether, if construction of these settlements is authorized, the soldiers, sailors and marines would be interested in securing work and homes on these settlements.

Q. Can I get any further information about the plan?

A. Yes. Fill out the post card on the last page of this booklet and mail it. It doesn't require any postage. Your name will then be on file in the interior department, so that you can be notified later if the plan is started. It is not possible now to say when this information can be sent you, and you should, of course, in the meantime not sit idly by, but instead accept the best employment that now presents itself. You are urged on your return home to get in touch with the U. S. employment service in your locality and with your local council of defense, both of which organizations will gladly give you advice and assistance in securing employment now.

SUPERMEN ARE BUSY FIXING YANKS' SHOES

(By United Press)

COBLENZ, Feb. 2. (By Mail).—From fighting American soldiers in the Argonne to voluntarily repairing shoes for these same Americans is a long jump. Several score discharged German soldiers have made it.

In their withdrawal from the Rhine the German army left behind about 80,000 pounds of shoe leather, and a large quantity of shoe machinery. Maj. Lewis Landes of the salvage department conceived the idea of using the leather and machinery to repair the footgear of the troops in the occupied area, thereby saving the shipping space necessary to ship the shoes to France and back again. So he set up a big repair shop with about 100 German employees hired in Coblenz. About half of these are demobilized soldiers who were glad to get work, even at repairing the shoes of their enemies.

THE HOLY GRAIL

this region in most of the villages. They are billeted in the houses everywhere. And it is a blessing they are when you consider the weather, wet and mud everywhere. In this town there is quite a good "Y" hut, and the soldiers use it freely, as in most of the billets there are no fires. Getting into this country makes me realize a little the conditions under which the soldiers live. I tell you, war under such conditions must have tried men's souls. Peace, under these conditions and leave periods to various cities in Europe are trying them in other ways, and it goes without saying, the boys are anxious to get home. In most of the camps they are trying to put on a Christmas program. The "Y" is giving gifts of tobacco, cakes and candy in the name of the folks back home.

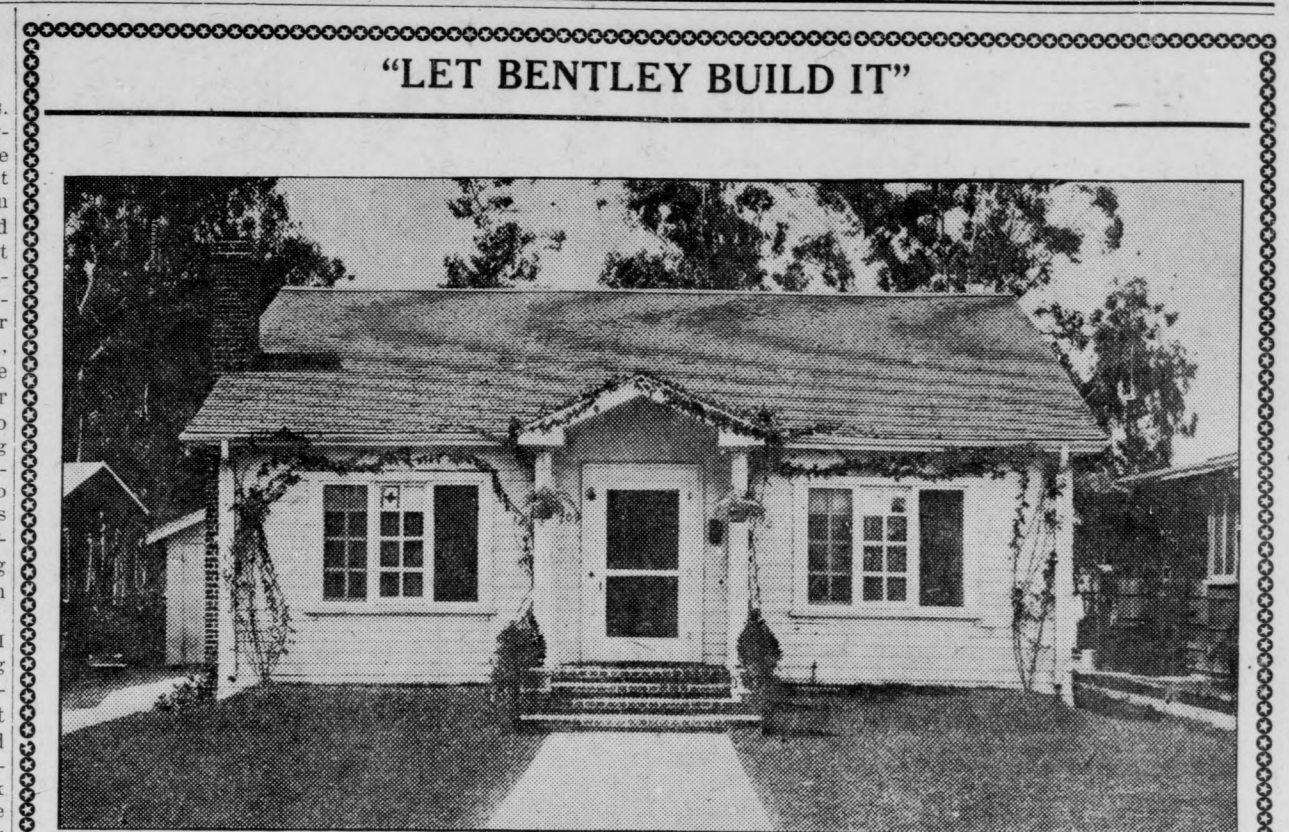

Dec. 24. Christmas Eve, and I am wondering what you are doing today and what you will be doing tomorrow. I am now in the "Y" hut here. It is a fine hut and well suited for the work. I shall always remember it, because here I began my work among the boys. After the lecture last night, several California boys came up to "shake"—one from San Pedro, one from Pomona, and one from Santa Ana. Earlier in the day, I met three other California boys. There is a hospital here, and this afternoon I am going over to visit the boys. Perhaps I can help them to pass what would be a tedious hour. The hospital was completed just before the war for a hotel—built by German capital. There are some famous sulphur baths here, and the hotel was built for people coming to the baths. It was surely a fine irony of fate that it should be a hospital for American soldiers. Today I went into a little shop to buy some dried figs, and an American soldier came out of the room behind. He had married the woman who owns the store. He said he expected to stay here until his wife could sell out and then move to the States. One thing, he felt sure that he had made no mistake and had nothing to regret. From what I have heard, a number of the men have married women of this town.

Christmas Day. I am now sitting in my billet to write to you. This is a strange—at least out of the ordinary Christmas. To some of the soldiers this is the second Christmas in France. All are hoping it will be the last. Rumors that any division is to go home are greeted eagerly—and caused hopes to rise. Yesterday I had a fine time visiting the boys at the hospital. They are glad to have someone come in, cheer them up, and tell them of the outside world. Last night I went carol singing with a bunch of soldiers. First, we went to the American hospital and sang in the hall downstairs. Then all were invited to go to the fourth floor and sing for the benefit of those on the top floors. There was quite a company of soldiers and they sang with a will. One led with his cornet. We then sang at the community tree erected by the soldiers, then at the French hospital. This evening I shall enter into the activities at the "Y" hut. They are trying to help the fellows all they can. And I tell you the fellows surely appreciate the big hut here. They are crowding it today—playing checkers, reading and writing letters. They enjoy sitting in a warm room. I tell you it is a God-send to them.

Dec. 27. Christmas Day I spent most of the time around the hut. And you would be surprised to see how interested the boys were in what we would call a simple Christmas program. The hut was crowded with soldiers and the evening program was a double-header. The first section was the reading from the scriptures of the Christmas story, while some soldiers went through the scenes. There was a nurse taking the part of Mary. They had the star of Bethlehem arranged quite uniquely. There were also the manger scene, the coming of the shepherds, also of the wise men. The fellows just craned their necks to see the program. Surely the Christ story still has its appeal to men. I guess the scenes carried many back to their homes and Sunday Schools. War doubtless brutalizes men, but these boys were not professional soldiers and the home ties were strong upon them. When men can turn from warfare to Christmas and throw themselves into it, they show that the fundamentals of religion still appeal to them. After the Christmas program there was one of stunts and popular songs.

Last night I spoke to 200 colored soldiers in their hut—a floorless building, but comparatively comfortable, as it had several stoves. There was a good platform and the hut was decorated for Christmas. A chorus of the boys led in singing some of the original religious melodies. All joined in and it was some singing. At the close of the address, they expressed themselves as determined to go home, strong, clean, Christian men. I count this privilege of talking to the colored fellows one of the great things since I came over here. Tonight I am to go to another camp, and thus it goes.

Dec. 28. I tell you the men are anxious to hear a message, especially if it deals with the United States. Last night I went out to a village where the "Y" is carried on in the loft of a barn, or warehouse. It was so dark in the village street that I could not see what it was. But the boys just crowded into that room, and there were writing tables, an old, out-of-tune piano, a tree from Christmas, two or three stoves, benches, and in one corner tables and boxes of goods for canteen. Candles were put here and there in any convenient place for lights. The boys were packed as tight as they could sit and stand to hear of "America, the Land of Destiny." My platform was a box behind the canteen table, with soldiers on the table, and wherever a fellow could get. My, they are appreciative.

Dec. 30. Yesterday, Sunday, I tramped out into the country, three and one-half or four miles to the place where I lectured Friday night (in the loft). In the morning the "Y" man and some of the soldiers came to ask me to go back for the evening. They said they would hurry back and announce it and help me over night if I could stay. In the afternoon the sky was gray and threatening, and the road slippery. But what a meeting! It was one of the times of my life. What a crowd to talk to! I felt repaid a hundred times as I walked back through the dark and the wind and the rain.

Langres, Dec. 31. Now I am in my second town or headquarters. I am in a rear room of "Liberty Hut," a large institution, and sitting at the same table writing to his wife is my friend who came over with me and who spoke of seeing the "Holy Grail." He is in charge of the religious work here. Poor fellow, he has had a spell in the hospital and is feeling rather discouraged. I am glad I dropped in on him.
